About Me

I am a student studying Computer Science in Bina Nusantara University. Currently in my 6th semester in University of Tsukuba as a part of SEAMEO RIHED's AIMS Student Exchange Program. I enjoy trying new things and challenging myself and am currently seeking hands-on experience in a professional environment and future career possibilities in my field of study. I believe that with my skills and experience, I can make a significant contribution, grow myself and learn many new things, both personally and professionally.
